

EDPSY 581
Seminar in Educational Psychology:
Research in School Psychology

Thursdays, 3:50 - 4:50
Miller Hall Room 402

The College of Education prepares caring, knowledgeable, and reflective practitioners grounded in best practices and dedicated to meeting the needs of all students.

Spring Quarter 2003

Instructors	Phone number	Office	Email address
James J Mazza, Ph.D.	616-6373	322 M Miller Hall	mazza@u.washington.edu
Scott A. Stage	616-6371	322 R Miller Hall	sstage@u.washington.edu
Robert A. Abbott	616-6308	312 H Miller Hall	abbotr@u.washington.edu

Purpose: This seminar course is designed to help school psychology students consider critical issues in research design and to start the foundational steps in learning how to conduct research in the field. The second quarter of this seminar will focus on developing skills to analyze and conduct quantitative research in the field of school psychology.

Room: Miller Hall 402 T

Required Text: Handouts

Date	Topic/Handouts	Instructor
April 3, 2003	Selection of work groups Outline of research design	Mazza & Stage
April 10, 2003	Developing research ideas and hypotheses	Mazza
April 17, 2003	Structuring Data Collection	Mazza
April 24, 2003	Research presentation	Stage
May 1, 2003	Power & Effect Size	Abbott
May 8, 2003	Research Presentation	Mazza
May 15, 2003	Student Presentations	Mazza
May 22, 2003	Student Presentations	Mazza
May 29, 2003	Student Presentations	Mazza
June 5, 2003	Student Presentations	Mazza